DESCRIPTION

Engineered for serious players, the Rhino Pro Body Protection Top is built to take the hits so you can bring the heat. Combining cutting-edge protection with seamless comfort, this high-performance layer is designed to keep you safe in every tackle, ruck, and collision.

Key Features:

- Advanced Impact Defence: Features dual expansion foam technology that absorbs heavy impact and distributes force evenly, helping reduce the risk of injury.
- Strategic EVA Padding: Reinforced padding is precisely placed on the shoulders, biceps, and sternum, covering the key contact zones without restricting movement.
- Snug, Flexible Fit: Lightweight and form-fitting, this top is designed to be worn under your kit, offering all-day comfort without bulk.
- Breathable & Lightweight: Made from premium-grade fabric, it keeps you cool and mobile through every phase of play.

Product Details:

- Material: Lightweight, breathable fabric
- Foam: Dual expansion impact-absorbing foam
- Padding Zones: Shoulders, biceps, sternum
- Fit: Tight-fitting for easy layering under jerseys
- Ideal For: Rugby players looking for maximum protection without compromising agility

Trust Rhino Rugby South Africa to keep you game-ready—train harder, play tougher, stay protected.
