DESCRIPTION

The Rhino Jackal Bag is a rugged and versatile training tool designed to help players improve their tackling and body position. Made from durable, high-quality materials, this bag can withstand heavy use and powerful impacts. Its unique shape and design are perfect for practising low tackles, rucking, and defensive skills, simulating real game scenarios. Lightweight and easy to handle, the Jackal Bag offers excellent mobility during drills while providing the resistance needed to build strength and technique. Ideal for rugby players looking to enhance their skills, the Rhino Jackal Bag is a must-have addition to any training session.
